

San Diego, California (October 3, 2022) – Chandler Asset Management expands its Business Development team by adding an additional professional to focus on serving our clients in the Rocky Mountain Region.

Chandler Asset Management is pleased to announce the expansion of their Business Development team. Chandler Asset Management welcomes Ben Mendenhall.

Ben Mendenhall brings critical relationship management skills and deep experience with public agency investing. He will serve clients and prospects, present the value and diverse investment solutions that Chandler provides public agencies and institutional clients as a world-class leader in fixed income investment management.

Ben Mendenhall
Senior Relationship Manager

Ben Mendenhall is a Senior Relationship Manager and assumed his current position as of September 2022. Ben brings 16 years of investment management experience. He has worked with the Colorado local governments for over 12 years. Ben maintains existing relationships and develops new ones, and his area of focus is on the development of client relationships in the Rocky Mountain Region.

Prior to joining Chandler, Ben was a Vice President of Investment Advisory Services for Public Trust Advisors where he was responsible for relationship management, LGIP development and service, client education, and portfolio strategies and reviews. Prior to working for Public Trust Advisors, he worked for Public Financial Management (PFM) as a Senior Analyst, serving in a variety of client-facing roles.

Ben is a graduate of the University of Rhode Island with a B.S. in Business Management & Finance. He holds the FIRNA Series 65 license. Ben will be based out of the firm's Denver office and can be reached at bmendenhall@chandlerasset.com.

"We are delighted to welcome Ben to Chandler's Business Development Team and fortunate to have him service our Rocky Mountain Region clients as he has the capabilities and enthusiasm to tackle his new role. Ben embodies the firm's fundamentals that are so ingrained in our culture," states Martin Cassell, CFA, CEO. Chandler continues to build relationships in the Rocky Mountains. Ben brings a wealth of experience to serve clients throughout the state as well as nationwide.
